

Tobin Lake, created in 1963, is the basin for E. B. Campbell Hydroelectric Station. Special landmarks along the lake such as "Eagle's Nest" as well as remote resorts and a special village offer memorable vistas and ports of call.

Getting Here:

Nipawin is serviced by good blacktop highways—55 and 35, and is 141 kms (88 miles) east of Prince Albert, 281 kms (170 miles) northeast of Saskatoon and 379 kms (235 miles) north of Regina. Air service is via Saskatoon's Diefenbaker International Airport and chartered and private aircraft are accommodated at Nipawin's municipal airport.

Aurora Houseboats

OF TOBIN LAKE

Miles of boreal shoreline and sheltered coves to explore by day, and magical nights beneath a blanket of stars so bright you could scoop them up in your hand. And if you're lucky, be dazzled by the aurora borealis, our namesake. Whether your pleasure is exploring, lounging, world-class fishing, sightseeing, a family celebration, working holiday, or all the above, come aboard an Aurora Houseboat for fun and adventure!

Aurora Houseboats has been serving tourists for more than twenty years and maintains a fleet of fine crafts sized to match your particular needs. You be the skipper, or let us be your guide. Just tell us how we can make your floating holiday special and we will tailor your package so it is just right for you. Then, relax—and leave your cares on the dock!

Drift life's stresses away.

Aurora Houseboats and marina is located at the Nipawin Regional Park on the outskirts of Nipawin, Saskatchewan. Our spectacular setting is the gateway to Tobin Lake and is renowned for numerous fishing tournaments, the Great Northern Pike Festival, and championship golf. A popular tourism and commercial destination, hospitable Nipawin and area can cater to your every need before your houseboat adventure and after you are back on shore.

Floating Celebrations: Let us make your special event memorable for years to come. Weddings, anniversaries, reunions, corporate functions, and more.

About Our Houseboats:
We have three models to choose from, suited to the size of your party and the onboard amenities you desire. Our boats operate from mid-May to mid-September. We recommend booking as early as possible to avoid disappointment.

River Cruises & Tours, catered if desired, are available on request. Come, relax on beautiful Tobin, and enjoy your favourite foods prepared to your taste.
